The Story

Irish whiskey is the fastest growing spirit in the world. At the Irish Whiskey Museum we tell it's history, from the origin of whiskey in Ireland up to the present day, with all the highs and lows in between.

In 2013, there were only four distilleries in operation and five visitor centres on the island. Now there are eighteen working distilleries, with another sixteen in planning. The Irish Whiskey Museum being independent of all distilleries, offers visitors the opportunity to taste and experience some of the many varieties of whiskey on offer.

Our bar is run by whiskey masters who have visited distilleries all over Ireland and brought this knowledge back to the heart of Dublin.

Ask them questions about our extensive whiskey menu so that you can enjoy the perfect whiskey for your palate.
